TAME MEN AND WILD WOMEN

By Hal E. Roach /

Wilmot, a credulous little boy of thirty-one, is informed by his mother that there is no Santa Claus and that his grandfather and his father were the victims of affairs with women. His mother takes him to his first dance where the girls drive him nearly crazy. She then sends him to a military academy where he gets himself in a mixup with the general's daughter. After a lot of excitement, he finally manages to win her.
